

CONCERT THEMES THAT DON'T SUCK

Fall

FALL INTO MUSIC

Perform music about...MUSIC!

FALL BACK

As in when the clocks 'fall back.' A Fall Back show should include songs that are oldies, but goodies!

UNITED WE STAND

Salute veterans and military service people with patriotic tunes and other inspirational songs.

FROST ON THE PUMPKIN

Celebrate the fall season - the time for sweaters, football, falling leaves, and pumpkin flavored everything!

Winter

GLEE AROUND THE CHRISTMAS TREE

Perform holiday standards with some contemporary flair.

COLD HANDS, WARM HEARTS, AND HOT CHOCOLATE!

Treat your audience to a wonderful concert experience, ending with a reception of hot chocolate and cookies!

NO BUSINESS LIKE 'SNOW' BUSINESS

Use songs from popular musicals.

BREAK THE ICE

Incorporate audience participation as either part of the introduction or a song where the audience can join in and sing along.

'SNOW' IN LOVE

Winter can be the season of love, too!

HOMEMADE FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Hold a bake sale or cookie giveaway in conjunction with a winter program.

CONCERT THEMES THAT DON'T SUCK

Spring

EVERYTHING'S COMING UP

ROSES

Give roses to mothers or graduating seniors.

SPRING FORWARD

Since we 'Spring Forward' in the spring time, focus on what is yet to come, and in spring that is usually graduation! Honor graduating seniors and their parents at this event.

SPRING INTO ACTION

Conduct a charity concert event, collecting canned goods for the cost of admission or a monetary donation to go towards a worthy cause.

WHERE IS THE LOVE?

Spring may be the season for lovers, but what about love lost? Entertain your audience with songs of heartbreak and anguish.

Anytime!

PLAY (SING) LIKE A GIRL

Highlight songs written and/or performed by female composers and musicians. FYI: March is Women's History Month.

ALL THAT JAZZ

Serenade the audience with jazz tunes that will surely have the audience snapping their fingers and tapping their toes. FYI: April is Jazz Appreciation Month, or JAM.

O M GLEE!

Perform songs featured on the hit television show GLEE, a show enjoyed by students and their parents alike.

I LOVE THE *INSERT DECADE***

Choose a decade and focus on the hits of that time.

IF MUSIC BE THE FOOD OF LOVE

Treat the audience to a little night music and delicious dishes! Host a fundraiser dinner that features live entertainment provided by your awesome music students.

NIGHT AT THE MOVIES

Thrill audiences with music from hit movies. A post-show popcorn bar with popcorn, candy, and nuts would make for a great takeaway for guests.
